Why Lyft works for drivers

Key Facts

Lyft drivers have the flexibility to decide when they work, where they work, and for how long they work.

Unlike set shifts with traditional employment, people who drive with Lyft can:

- Be their own boss by logging on and off the platform at any time.
- Decline any ride requests that don’t work for their schedule.
- Work on multiple platforms at exactly the same time (59% of drivers do).
- Take time off when needed and choose to return, or not, whenever they want.

Drivers set their own schedules so they can earn supplemental income, pursue an education, or care for loved ones.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>74%</th>
<th>58%</th>
<th>45%</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Of drivers work outside of driving on the Lyft platform</td>
<td>Of drivers enrolled in school say they need Lyft’s flexible hours to fit class schedules.</td>
<td>Of drivers with children say Lyft’s flexible hours let them be home for their kids</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Source: 2020 Economic Impact Report

The overwhelming majority of drivers want to maintain independence.

- 93% of drivers say the flexibility they get from driving with Lyft is very or extremely important to them.
- 90% of drivers work fewer than 20 hours a week.

Source: 2020 Economic Impact Report