Engagement Opportunities

PARTNER WITH THE NATIONAL LEAGUE OF CITIES IN MOVING OUR NATION FORWARD. TOGETHER.
Across the country, city leaders have the power to dictate the direction of their city and drive America's economy forward. But they can't do that without hearing from and engaging with the private sector. That's where the National League of Cities (NLC) can help.

NLC represents the 19,000 cities, towns and villages across America who are leading in innovation and advancement; our corporate partners are revolutionizing the way America thinks about business and technology. By bringing the private and public sector to the same table, NLC is able to foster partnerships that make America's cities smarter, more responsive and economically vibrant.

Through the events, conferences, and member committees laid out in this brochure, you can network and connect with city leaders and raise your organization profile amongst our diverse audience.

REAL
Race, Equity And Leadership (REAL) is NLC’s effort to equip its membership with the capacity to respond to racial tensions in their communities and address the historical, systemic and structural barriers that further inequity and racism in our nation’s cities. Systemic, institutional racism and bias have had negative impacts on public policy. A focus on racial equity provides NLC the opportunity to align its unique strengths and resources across the organization to proactively prepare city leaders to apply a racial equity lens to policies, initiatives, programs and budgets. A racial equity lens offers city leaders the opportunity to create meaningful conversations and take action by assessing the ways in which municipal government can both benefit and burden racially diverse communities.

Committees meet throughout the year
Working in partnership with 49 state municipal leagues, the Center for Federal Relations serves as both a resource and an advocate for the more than 19,000 cities, towns, and villages the organization represents.
